“ I will always Love my Brother even though we did not see each other much. I remember back in the day when he arrived home from boot camp in his shiny new Air force uniform!! I was really proud of him. Brother may you rest in peace and I know you are with your loving wife and Mom!! I Love You Stan!!!!!!

“ I met Mr. Stanley one Christmas when he was visiting John and family. I was having the family Christmas Eve at my house and John's family, being my adopted family, was expected to be here. John introduced me to his wonderful dad and I remember feeling like I were standing by a wall. I am all of 5'2" and was towered by these two tall fellows.

Thank you John for bringing your dad over that evening.
