“ Stan was my cousin, I grew up with him and the Wilfons and then saw him and Doug later when I visited Albuquerque on business in the eighties, but then lost track of him. He was a funny person who loved to have a good time, and I will miss him.

“ To the family of Stan Wilfon.

I went to a North Polk Class Reunion yesterday and Saw Randy Dalton and he informed me that Stan passed away earlier this year. I want to express my deepest condolences.

I remember all the great times we had growing up together in Polk City. Stan and Doug were truly great friends and I wish we could have connected after I got out of the service. I did communicate with Stan a few years ago when he came back to Polk City for a little bit but unfortunately we were not able to get together much to my dismay.

I am sure Stan was a great story teller as I know for a fact he had a lot of stories to tell.

Thank you Stan for all the good times.

“ I met Stan through my wife, his sister Deb, 44 years ago. I love all of the members of the family, and Stan was something special. I cannot remember a moment when I did not enjoy being around Stan. As many have said, his stories and his embracing life, no matter what came along, were two highlights, along with his infectious laugh and our good natured banter. We shared a love for history and politics and he could be enthusiastically serious about both. To watch him with Christine was a pleasure as the two of them made a great couple. Christine brought out the best in him. Most of all, I enjoyed watching him with Deb; she and I both will miss him.

“ I always felt lucky growing up in a big family, in a small town. My brother Stan was fun, charismatic, and a little crazy, (a lot). He was a talented storyteller and loved to make people laugh. He lived every day of his life to the fullest. He worked hard, and he played even harder. I am grateful that you are in a better place with Mom, Dad, Lynn and Doug. I can't believe you are gone. I will carry you in my heart for the rest of my life! Your little sister, Debbie

“ My brother, Stan, was one of a kind. He had fun all his life. People loved him & he loved everyone. He especially loved Chris. I wish they could have found each other sooner. He was a great storyteller. He was a light in our lives. I hope our family in heaven is ready for him. Rest in peace.
