“ It is with heartfelt condolences that I extend my sympathy and heart to your family. Stephen was one of the kindest, sincere, respectful and loving human beings I have ever come across. Every Saturday I looked forward to seeing Stephen at the Haymarket Starbucks. He always made me feel special and we had a unique friendship. When I found out the news my heart skipped a beat and I was in shock and sadness. I then took solace knowing he will forever be watching over all of us and will never be forgotten. May the love and kindness he bestowed upon everyone he met be passed on forever in his honor. I will miss you Stephen and never forget your kindness and fun charm. Rest in peace my friend. Thank you for being you. My love to all family and friends. Truly, Becky

“ I went to middle school with Stephen-he was actually my first crush! I remember him coming over to my friend Jessica’s house, and it was that moment when you “freak out” that your crush is ACTUALLY coming over to hang out with you. Stephen and I spent some nights on the phone just talking, and during that time, all I know is that he was the sweetest person and such a great listener. I remember running into him years later, and he had not changed from the 12 year boy I had once crushed on-goofy, sweet, and pure sunshine.

Stephen, if you are somewhere in the Universe reading this, please know that you are love and light, and everyone who knew you loved you. ✨-Janie Anderson

“ dear mr. and mrs. all (and family),

I delivered the flowers this morning for your son's viewing. I had also delivered flowers to the starbuck's in haymarket on Tuesday. I do not usually look up the obituaries.... I was shocked and saddened to realize that I knew your son; he was a wonderful, and kind, young man. for many years, we did not have internet, and spent a lot of time at the starbuck's by Costco. I saw your son a few months ago, at the starbuck's in haymarket. as always, he was kind and pleasant. I am a single parent, of two young boys, soon to be 11 and 12. I cannot imagine your reality, right now. I am very sorry, and sad about your son's death. He was a wonderful, and kind, young man. My heart aches for you and your family. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. kim su sacher

“ Stephen always made me laugh. His passion for constantly learning was so much fun as he constantly shared it with my husband and me.

His kindness towards my special needs sister warmed my heart and meant more to me than I think he realized.

He was the best way to start my day off every day. It was more about my Starbucks Family than it was the coffee.

I am touched that the Universe crossed our paths in this life.

Peace be with him and a great big hug from me.
