“ Nearly 18 years ago, our family was ‘bordered’ into the Franklin Ward from Reston. We struggled with this. We’d been in Reston Ward for nearly 8 years, longer than we’d ever been in any ward in our Church lives. And this wasn’t by our choice. But we heeded the call and came anyway.

Shortly after that boundary change, Franklin Ward hosted an activity to welcome members from Reston Ward and somewhere in that activity, part of the entertainment included our new bishopric—including Steve as a counselor—Riverdancing (yep! RIVERDANCING!!) through the cultural hall. I remember smiling for the first time in weeks—seriously, WEEKS—and thinking, “This is going to be okay.”

Ward life with the Lafleurs in the past (nearly) 18 years, has been more than okay. It’s been great. And how grateful we are for the gospel that lets us know we’ve only seen a sneak preview of all that is yet to come!

We love you, we love your family, Kay. – Jay and Mary
