

Steven Weisner

January 31, 1963 - December 20, 2020

Steven Weisner, 57, Cambridge, Md, passed away suddenly on Sunday, December 20, 2020 at his home. He was born on January 31, 1963 in Ishpeming, MI. He spent his childhood as part of an Air Force family, residing in many different parts of the country. His favorite place was the 8 years in Honolulu, HI where he graduated high school in 1981. He was hoping to return in 2021 for his 40th reunion. Steve was employed by D.S. Smith in Cambridge, Md.

In his free time Steve had a great passion for gardening, carpentry and remodeling and you could always find him working on a project.

Steve is survived by his parents, Paul and Myra (Maxwell) Weisner, Manassas, VA; sister Lorie Norman, Waco Tx; son Jonathan (Anna) Weisner, US Army, Kentucky; newborn grandson Hunter Weisner; step-daughters Bridgit (Eric) Lewis, of Hurlock, MD; Brittney (DJ) Jump of Hurlock, MD; five step-grandchildren, and his devoted bundle of 4-legged joy, Bandit.

Preceding him in death was his wife Kim, who passed away in November 2019 and maternal and paternal grandparents, James and Vi Maxwell, Michigan and Glenn and Pearl Weisner Sr., Pennsylvania.

As requested by Steve, cremation has been afforded, with services to be held at a later date, due to COVID restrictions. Arrangements are in the care of the Thomas Funeral Home in Cambridge, Md.
