

Susan K. Titus

April 20, 1954 - June 5, 2023

Susan Katheryn Murphy Titus was born April 20, 1954, at Elmendorf AFB in the territory of Alaska to Carrol Joseph (Joe) Murphy and Bernice Doettling Murphy. She was the oldest of four – brother Timothy, sister Carol, and brother Dennis.

As the daughter of an Army NCO and later Warrant officer, she lived in many places but said she liked Yuma Proving Grounds Arizona the best. She graduated high school in Houma, Louisiana and went on to get a BA in Journalism from Ball State Indiana. After college she worked for the Department of Justice as a paralegal in Washington D.C. She married May 6, 1978, to John M. Titus III an Air Force NCS and later Army Warrant Officer. She was the mother of Johnie M. Titus IV, and Casey Devon Titus Sloan. The family has resided in Nuremburg, Germany, Palm Bay Florida, Indianapolis, Indiana, and Washington D.C. The family has resided in Manassas since January 1989. She is survived by her husband, son, daughter, and two granddaughters Victoria Hope Titus and Alexandria Grace Titus. As a faithful Catholic she prayed the Rosary daily and never missed a weekend or Holy Day of Obligation mass (not even while traveling). She was a beloved wife, mother, and sister that will be greatly missed. Resting with the Lord our savior until we arise together.
