“ Sylvanus was a great man and friend. I worked with him ever since he started at Walmart, we had a lot of fun and laughs together. My condolences to the family. I gave him rides home when we got off from work, really gonna miss him. ”

“ I have lost a true friend, brother and mentor. I recall his strong professional ethics, hard work and dedication to family and friends. We worked together at the Liberian Broadcasting Corporation, where, as my boss, he imparted the virtues of journalism and public service. I will miss our regular phone conversations and his strength. Even under failing health, he did not exude self-pity, but demonstrated his faith in a higher power whose will he accepted. In our Liberian parlance, I say, "Sylvanus (or Old Man, as we called each other), you be man!" This is the highest honor we bestow on a faithful family man, stalwart professional and pace setter. Old Man, you be man! Rest in everlasting peace. ”
