

Sylvia McGlothlin Taylor

December 15, 1948 - July 15, 2020

Sylvia Lorraine Taylor 1948-2020

Sylvia Taylor of Nokesville, Virginia passed into the arms of Jesus on Wednesday, July 15, 2020. She was born on December 15, 1948, in Alexandria, Virginia to Carlice McKinley and Anna Rebecca Louise Keene McGlothlin. She was a graduate of W.T. Woodson High School.

She met the love of her life, Myron Kenneth (Ken) Taylor, Sr. of Clifton, VA in 1967. Ken and Sylvia were married on August 10, 1968 and spent their honeymoon at Skyland on Skyline Drive. They frequently returned there to celebrate anniversaries and special occasions. Ken and Sylvia were blessed with six children, Ken Taylor, Jr. (Lorie) of London, KY, Laura Burris (Benji) of Culpeper, VA, Ben Taylor (Elizabeth) of Arlington, VA, Drew Taylor of Los Angeles, CA, Josh Taylor (fiancé Nancy Marano) of Nokesville, VA, and Joey Taylor of Nokesville, VA. Sylvia also was blessed with numerous grandchildren, Caleb Taylor (Lauren) of London, KY, Makayla Flowers (Stephen) of Columbia, SC, Constance Morris (Bobby), Savannah, Clayton, Blake, Abby, and Ava Burris of Culpeper, VA, Sabrina Taylor of Nokesville, VA, and Noah and Bowen Marano of Nokesville, VA, and great-grandchild, Keagan Flowers. Another Taylor great- grandchild from Lauren and Caleb is expected in September. Sylvia's children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren were her pride and joy and she loved nothing better than family meals around her dining room table.

Sylvia dedicated her life to her church and her family and spent her days serving her Lord and his children. Her days were filled with praying and caring for the sick and lost, cooking for those who needed nourishment, and visiting those who needed a friend and a prayer. She was an amazing cook and an avid gardener. She loved horses, travelling, and politics and was never afraid to speak her mind. Her tenacity and forthrightness were balanced by a true love of people and the world around her.

Sylvia is survived by her seven sisters Lou, Linda, Josie, Betty, Wanda, Sue and Sharon, and her two brothers Carlice and Wayne. She also is survived by her many beloved nieces and nephews, an extended family spread across the country, and her brothers and sisters of the Church.

Sylvia was preceded in death by her parents and her sister Peggy.

She was a true servant of God and her positive impact was profound and widespread. She will be deeply missed by her family and all who knew her.

A visitation will be held on Saturday, July 25, 2020, from 6-9 p.m. at Pierce Funeral Home in Manassas, VA. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, the visitation will be a walk-through event and the family kindly asks those who attend to pay their respects as quickly as possible so everyone will have an opportunity to do so. In addition, a graveside service will be held on Sunday, July 26th, but will be limited to immediate family only.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to Bristow Assembly of God Church. Donations can be mailed to 11804 Nokesville Road, Bristow, VA 20136 and will go to a special mission fund in her honor to carry on her life's work of love.

“ Sylvia could very well have saved my son's life. It was 1991 and our son, Nathan, had gotten his driver's license several months earlier. He was coming home on route 15 from a friends when the weather turned stormy. Thinking he had time to pass the truck did not work out and the semi hit his sedan head on. Sylvia was also in her car and when she came upon this awful scene she parked her car and got out to see if she could help. She saw Nathan bloody and bewildered trapped in his car. She prayed for him and stayed with him as the ambulance was on it's screaming way. She told two men who stopped with lit cigarettes to put them out immediately since she smelled the gas leaking from the truck and car. Praise God for this wonderful woman! My family and I will never forget it or her bravery and kindness. Hal and Kathleen Frampton

Thank you so very much for sharing this extraordinary life story. It doesn't surprise me sounds just like something my sister Sylvia would do. A very take charge person when the situation called for, unafraid to do whatever she could to help anyone in need! Never let you or your son hesitate to share his story, you never know how many the good story will help encourage others to believe in God. Thanks again.

“ The McGlothlin family and our family (Bro. Kirk Powers and Sis Rayetta) have such a sweet and rich history. From being together as young people to our times of seeing each other as adults. Sharon staying in my home, Carlos helping put my porch roof on, mostly enjoying the blessings of the Lord in various church services. Sylvia was so often a part of it. She was to me elegant, regal in her demeanor, and when she passed I made the statement that “heaven will never welcome a sweeter lady”. I mean it and she will always be remembered. I plan to meet in heaven. Many prayers and much love to the entire family, her children, and Bro. Ken. Sherry Powers Smith

“ Many memories come to mind of Sister Sylvia when I think back. She was so loved by me and my family. I am so sorry to hear of her passing and know she will be greatly missed. I enjoyed more than one meal at her table and fellowship with her family. Along with my grandparents Havis and Dot Crawford. I know a great celebration is going on in Heaven now as they are reunited with their Savior. My prayers go out to you all. Beverly Richardson Christian
