The Man, The Myth, The Legend: that was our dad. It's hard to put down in words everything that I want to say. Dads are someone to look up to, someone to follow, someone to admire, someone to be proud of and someone to brag about, someone to hold and someone to cry with, someone to learn from and someone to respect, someone to listen to and someone to talk to; someone to try and impress, sometimes rebel against, and someone, most of all, with whom to share everything this wonderful life has to offer.

We are so incredibly grateful that we can tell you that we have had all this and much, much more with our dad, Terry. To say we loved our dad would be an understatement and to say we will miss him would be an even greater understatement.

Our dad was a devoted husband to one, a wonderful father to five, a loving grandfather to fourteen, and a great-grandfather to one.

This isn't good-bye; it's we will see you later.
