“ I knew Thelma very briefly from my time when I used to visit her roommate in the nursing home. She quickly became a good friend to me and showed me love and compassion. Thelma was very much loved within the nursing facility and among her friends. She often spoke very lovingly of her daughter and loved ones. She was caring, humorous, and resilient. She looked out for those around her and stayed strong. I'll miss our talks and visits. I'm sorry I wasn't able to visit closer to her passing. She is missed very much, but I know she is now in peace.
