Have tried so many times to post a tribute, but it never goes through. Will try thru comment.

Will always remember the many Christmases Theresa and her family spent at my house with us and her Grandma Williams (my Mom), not to mention other holidays and summer picnics. I am so sad and can only hope you are safe with your Dad and the others that have gone before us. Love and remembrances...

“ Theresa!!! 🌸

I love you and will always cherish the great times we had together. I'm thankful u are apart of my family. I always felt a special connection with u! Must have been all of my diapers u changed!!! We always had a great time together and we always found something to laugh about. Thanks for always making me feel special and for always taking time out for me when I was in town. I am very sadden by your passing, but I know you are in a better place. I will always remember the sound of your laughter!!! I'm excited for the chance to hear your laughter!!!! Love always!!!! Xoxo

“ I knew Theresa from High School and I am extremely sadden to hear this news. She was always such a fun and beautiful person. May she rest in peace. To her family & daughters, please accept my sincere condolences, andn may God find a way to heal your hearts : (I'm so sorry.

The following poem helped me alot when my Mother passed away - hopefully it helps you all as well:

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too;*

*But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,*

*And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

*But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.*

*I had so much to live for, so much left yet to do,
It almost seemed impossible that I was leaving you.*

*I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.*

*If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.*

*But then I fully realized, that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories, would take the place of me.*

*And when I thought of worldly things, I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.*

*But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne,*

*He said, "This is eternity, and all I have promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, but here life starts anew.*

*I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last,
And since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past.*

*You have been so faithful, so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do.*

*But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me?"*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.*

I love you Theresa, you've have been one of my closest, dearest, and best friends for the last 30 years. There are so many great memories that we share, I don't know where to begin to mention them. You were with me when i got my first tattoo, the tribal butterfly & I'm dedicating it to you. Just know I will always love and miss you & will never forget our many, many memories. Say hi to my mom and grandma's up in heaven for me, give them kisses. They always loved you as well. And I'm sure you're right there with your dad also. I love you and you will forever be missed, I can still hear your beautiful laugh....I always loved your laugh.

“Theresa, I have a lot of silly, funny, and crazy memories from our much younger years, and will always remember them. It's never easy for family and friends when they get called home, but I'm glad you are not suffering. I just know it's beautiful in heaven, and that your Dad was waiting right there for you, to show you the way. I'll never forget our tubing trip down the Shenandoah, I was truly hoping we could do that again this summer like we planned ... but I know you'll be there with us, just in a different way. Rest easy my friend, and spread those wings and FLY!!!! XO I am sending many prayers to Taylor, Brittany, Cary, and all of your family members for the strength to get through this and always cherish the memories they made with you.

Words can not express how I feel right now or the amount of Love I have for You!!! Or what and how much you mean to me. I will cherish
You and all the wonderful memories of You!
Just seems like yesterday we were camping out on your bedroom floor in our sleeping bags. I enjoyed all the long talks we had then and the ones we had recently. Going fishing with Dad on Saturdays was a blast. Dad sure had a lot of patience with us doing that. Thank you for teaching me so many wonderful things. And answering all my 100 of 100 of questions. Cause you knew I had a lot of them. As you said I was writing a book. And a good one it would be. Thanks for listening to me. Theresa you are truly one of a kind and an amazing person. And I am so proud and privileged to call you My Sister And Friend. I Love You. Until we meet again, Girl; it's see you later. ????????*

“ I was blessed enough to work with Theresa. She was truly one of a kind. I loved how she owned her thoughts and opinions and spoke of them freely. I remember she was a reason why I "somewhat" enjoyed my job while I was there. Just seeing her face and hearing whatever she had to say, always interested me in some way. She's was an individual that I knew, just by meeting her, changed my outlook on life, and myself completely. These last couple years of my life, a lot has changed and I'm glad she partook in it. I remember she thought the world of her girls. Often, she'd display pictures on her cell phone of them. I remember how much she talked about how she wanted to get married. Just like her girls, she was beautiful inside and out. I remember spending time with her last year at a Pure Romance Party. It was so much fun! I'm in disbelief and sad she's gone. She was too young to go! May her memory and the love, fun, and joy she exuded live on!

“ I will miss Theresa greatly. It took a while for us to get reconnected after I moved out of Manassas, but once we bumped into each other in Culpeper (neither of us realizing we lived close to each other), we talked every chance we got. I always looked forward to seeing what she was posting on Facebook...she definitely had a huge personality! All my love goes out to my sister-in-law, Kathy, and her daughters, Brittany and Taylor and I pray that all the wonderful memories they have of her, will bring some comfort and peace to their hearts. Keep smiling Theresa, you are an angel!
