“ Remembering my cousin Tom as a funny, smart ,inquisitive little boy ,who nessitated my aunt and uncle to tie all the cabinets shut for safety’s sake. Don’t think he ever outgrew his thirst for knowledge. He made his parents very proud of all his accomplishments. He had a beautiful family. He will be missed

“ Tom and I shared the fact the we both have 3 beautiful daughters. He and I would discuss the best way to keep the safe, and ward of potential "bad boys". After my son started dating his daughter, I told him the rules still applied... I'll miss my friend, but know for certain that he is in paradise awaiting the resurrection. His family are in good hands of the Savior and their ward family.
