“ Tom was one of my families additional kids. The sweetest teddy bear of a big brother you could ask for. Many times he talked me out of a dark place and many times he was a shoulder to cry on, a jokester to make me laugh and the sweetest of pals to be around. Over the years we'd chat on social media about Nokesville where Noone was ever a stranger and our day to day lives. He is greatly missed. Rest easy big guy.
