“ Waking up this morning without you in the house was very difficult, I expected to have a morning coffee talk with you while I was getting ready for work. I'm glad you are finally home with Mom but I am already missing you here. The house won't be the same, the mornings will be less bright, my evening meals will be non existent without you to cook for. So I will say this, I will always remember our mornings, our kisses goodbye, and the "I'll be safe." I'll always remember our evening meals together the laughs and the arguments with the news, the "Good night I love you dad" and the "I love you too"...I will never forget you dad, because I will always be a part of you. I love you :o)

“ I was so sad to hear Tom had passed away. My friend, Shel, called and let me know. We three worked at AT&T in Arlington, Virginia. Tom was the nicest guy, friendly, great co-worker, and we all loved him. My thoughts and Prayers are with his Family and Friends. He will surely be missed by all that knew him.

“ Hope this doesn't appear twice, since I signed and it didn't show up in Guestbook?..
I was so sad when Shel called me last Friday to let me know Tom had passed away. He was a wonderful man, friend, co-worker, and just the nicest guy to work with. We all three worked at AT&T in Arlington, Virginia. I have not seen Tom for several years, but seems like yesterday. Tom will missed so much, by his Family, Friends and Co-Workers. Sending my Prayers and Condolences to his Family.

“ I little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life I loved you dearly, In death I do the same. It broke my heart to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of me went with you, the day God called you home. You left peaceful memories, your love is still my guide, and though I cannot see you, you are always at my side.

The chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, but God calls us one by one, the chain will link again, and I'll see you then. I love you and will miss you deeply.
