

Thomas Edward Ryan

November 23, 1946 - December 20, 2023

Tom Ryan was a very independent and strong-willed man. Growing up in upstate New York, after 2 years of college at St. Bonaventure, he enlisted in the Marines to serve his country during the Vietnam War. He loved his family and did all he could to provide for their need, including at one point working 3 jobs so his wife Karen, who preceded him in death, could stay home with their children. Tom was very generous throughout his life, giving to those who needed help without expecting repayment. He acknowledged his need of Christ to cleanse him of his sins and embraced the cross and Christ's great and precious promises.

To is survived by his children, Robert Benedetto, (wife Jeanette), Victoria McKean (husband Chris) and Rena Rose (husband Blake) as well as grandchildren, Ryan, Meghan and Andrew Benedetto and Connor McKean.

The family celebrates his passage to his eternal home and will miss him on this side of Heaven.
