“ I was in Tommy's 5th grade class. We recently began messaging on fb. and shares a lot about his recovery and new beginning with the Lord. When we were in 5th grade Tommy broke his arm and the teacher asked me to write his work for him. I will admit I wasn't crazy about double duty but I did it. Then the little rascal TOOK OFF HIS CAST in gym class and PLAYED BALL! I ratted him out. Lol. But his arm really was broke so I continued to write his work. He recently posted something about asking for forgives for past transgressions. I laughing asked if that included 5th. I'm so happy he texted me back and said I made him laugh. I wish you would have called. I will see you again someday.

“ I haven't seen my cousin Tommy in many a year but I remember with great fondness the times we shared together as kids. I'm in Alberta with my family right now and as we drive deeper into the rugged remoteness of the Canadian Rockies, my mind replays scenes of my childhood and the good times Tommy and I shared. Yesterday as I was in the midst of one of these reveries, I looked up and saw the most beautiful rainbow. I couldn't help but think it was Tommy. I'm sad that I won't be able to join everyone for the memorial but I'm sending prayers and lots of love to all. --Beth

“ It's been almost 25 years since I saw Tom or "Shubie" as we called him. I remember him proudly standing in formation on his graduation day from Navy bootcamp. Tom was a good close friend during and after high school. Lots of good memories with him... Tom always had a positive attitude and zest for life. Although I had not seen Tom, I thought of him often and he will be missed. RIP Shubie..... Love ya like a brother... Andy Fonda

“ Dawn Marie, Tommy and Beth ... the three little musketeers. How I loved to watch them play together always giggling, playing tag, always happy, leap frog at Grandma & Grandad's place on the hill and never a mean or cross word amongst them.

I so deeply wish I could be with you next week to celebrate Tommy's life and to mourn his loss with all of the extended Long family.

With much love and prayers and great hope that Tommy has finally found the peace that so eluded him during his time on Earth with us.

*Always,
