“ I worked with Thomas for years at Hoppmann - from Chantilly to Elkwood, and so enjoyed his laughter and smile - Thomas had a wicked sense of humor that made me laugh all the time. He was a great, positive person and will be missed. Prayers to the whole family.

“ It takes time to write memories because you want use the best words to describe someone you knew. Thomas is one of those people. I had the pleasure of knowing Thomas for many years, he arrived in Crossakiel to Grainne larger than life personality friendly smile and at times would sit back listening to the chat. In these years we had many conversations and lots of jokes to which thomas would laugh heartily. His sense of humour would leave him giggling away to himself loving the fun around him. Thomas Simon Bryan Erika and Chiara I can only imagine your sadness, sending prayers and strength. To your darling mam Grainne so many hugs. Ar dheis Dè go raibh a anam (May his soul be on the right hand of God).
