

Thomas A. Young Jr

August 26, 1951 - April 18, 2026

Thomas A. Young, Jr., 74, passed away peacefully and went home to the Lord on April 18th, 2026. He was surrounded by his family and loved ones.

Tom was born in Washington, DC on August 26, 1951, to Thomas A. Young and Julia (Bowers) Young and raised in Alexandria, VA along with his older sisters Ann and Jan. He was a graduate of George Mason University and shortly after married the love of his life Patricia, beginning a 51 year journey of marriage. Tom and Pat raised their 3 children (Tommy, Tara, & Michael) in Manassas, VA.

The time that he was afforded in life can only be summarized as impactful. He had a stellar career in the banking industry that spanned over four decades. His story began humbly as an entry level teller working his way through college but would culminate in his ascendance to President & CEO. As impressive as his professional accolades were his true passion was coaching his kids on the soccer field. He was an accomplished coach who touched many lives throughout two decades of coaching, on the Northern Virginia soccer fields.

He is survived by his wife Patricia W. Young, his children Thomas A. Young III (Crystal), Tara Y. Dussouy (Alan), and James M. Young (Ari), his grandchildren, Nikiaha, Isaiah, Harper, Kaylee, Case, Phoebe, and his sister

Jan Calloway. Tom's kindness, generosity, quick wit, and love for his family will forever remain in our hearts. In the simplest terms he was a loving son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, coworker, coach, and friend. We will miss his council, laughter, banter, appreciation for sports, movies, shows and his love for the Washington Redskins.

He is preceded in death by his mother Julia Young, his father Thomas A. Young, his sister Ann Kendrick and her husband Meade Kendrick. Also, his beloved dogs Madison, Cooper and Chelsea.

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, May 2, 2026, from 3-5pm at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, VA.
