Ti was such a wonderful Sister. She was the Matriarch of the family. She was the glue that kept us as family together. She impacted many lives & gave sooooo much of herself; selflessly. She was 1 of the strongest women I know. I thank God for sharing/loaning her to us. I will hold you in my heart forever until the day we're reunited forever. Ti ; rest from all your labor. Get your rewards. Enjoy & take in all the beauty that I know you're standing in awe of. Unbelievable sights; gems; rocks; oceans. I can only imagine. Fly soooo high w all the angels. Soooo proud of you. Love you forever. Your Sister; Phuong 💋

“ Ti was an enthusiastic ambassador, member, and officer of the Northern Virginia Mineral Club. I will add a couple of photos of her in action in our Kids Activity Room, where she excelled at engaging young people in learning about earth science. "Gobsmacked" was the word I used when I learned she had walked on--total disbelief that one so full of life would no longer enliven my world. Still, my life is much richer for having her in it. Many people know more about rocks and minerals because of her. If there is a place to make memorial donations, please post it here.

Yours in Peace, Sue Marcus
