““Missy, if i had your money, I would burn mine” THAT is what Tim used to say to me, then smile. He was a father figure to me. When I lost my father so long ago, he treated me like his daughter. He loved to hear me tell of the antics that Rick and I would get into. He would look at me and give that Tim Krial smile that was heartwarming. He always asked me about my kids, loved the fact that Madison is an attorney and Braedon is finding his own way in addition to loving my grandchild, Jackson. He would call me and ask me to come by the house to help fix the tv... the garage door opener, or just to sit in the kitchen and chat. He would come up to our store every day with his coffee, just around lunch time as he knew I was either making sandwiches or brought something in for everyone to have. Tim always split what he was offered to eat home to Betty.. The love the two of them have will never be forgotten. I would see him sitting in the walmart parking lot, waiting on Betty to come out. I would make sure that I would stop by the truck to say hello. His face lit up when he saw me and I will NEVER ever forget what a good friend he was to me and my family, father to Rick and Tommy and husband he was to Betty. The one thing I can say for sure.... he was SO proud of his boys. He could not stop talking about the things he and Rick would get into in the early years. Every story ended up with all of us laughing. God Bless You Tim. gods speed and smooth transition. I am lucky to have the memories that I have of you in my life. We miss you and love you forever. Love you, Missy, Madison, Braedon, Jess and Jackson.”

“ *I had the pleasure of meeting Tim and Betty through my daughter, Missy. We would have our birthday gatherings at Missy's house, during the summer and Tim and Betty were always there. He was a fascinating man and the love story that grew between Tim and Betty I will always remember. He's going to be sorely missed. My prayers and thoughts go to your family, Rick. Prayers. “ I didnt know Tim long, but it felt as if we had known each other for years. He was fascinated with my ukulele collection. Loved coming into the store to see what artwork I had to show him on a daily basis. We would have coffee together, Missy would make lunch for all of us and we would discuss current events. He loved hearing about my adventures. I met him through his son, Rick and he made me feel like part of the family. He will be missed. I am very happy to have known him. Duane Plucknett

“ Tim was like a father to me. Anything he needed, he would call me. At times, I really thought he created things for me to do because he just liked the company. I've known Tim and Betty for over 15 years. He will be missed by many, but mostly by me. Jimmy Wagner
