“ We are so sad for the loss of a great son, father, husband, cousin, teacher and soooo much more. He was just a sweet, gentle guy just trying to live life. it is so unfair when a young person such as Toss dies because the world was a much better place with him in it. He has gone to a peaceful, beautiful place and has no more pain, no more suffering but he will surely be missed by all who knew him. May you rest in peace right by God's side.

“ Mr. Cline was by far my favorite teacher at Madison. As a 2010 graduate, I took every course that he offered, and he truly inspired me to pursue my engineering degree at Virginia Tech. I was also a member of the robotics team at Madison during my senior year, and it was incredible how much time and effort Mr. Cline devoted to the team's success.

“ I shared some of my fondest memories of High school with Toss. Cutting up in study hall with Mr. Teel, Art and Drafting classes and of course the countless hours on the football field with my brother Lineman. We also spent a lot time away from school hunting in the woods and field. You were always a good friend and a man of your word a true class act!!! You will be missed my but never forgotten, until we meet again rest with the angels my friend!

“ Toss and I sat next to each other in 6th grade (Clark and Cline being so close alphabetically), and he was the first person I got to know as a new student to BDMS/HS. Although we didn't keep in touch after high school, to this day I always remember three things about Toss:

- He never missed a day of school. Ever. He was always there, no matter what

- He was a great artist; he did a picture (Monticello if memory serves?) that was so good it ended up on several leaders' walls throughout Virginia

- His tornado story from childhood; it made me happy to see that "tornado chasing" was listed as a hobby

He obviously grew up to be an amazing man - a teacher, a father, and a friend. I wish we'd kept in touch, but at the least I can join in what will likely be an outpouring of sentiment for a terrific human being. Here's to you, Toss - you will be missed, but never forgotten...
