

Travis Charles Miller

May 22, 1981 - January 6, 2020

Travis Charles Miller of Bowie, Maryland finished his race on January 6, 2020. He was known as the great entertainer. Those blessed to be in the presence of Travis “strong as an ox” Miller were often in hysterics. He would enter into a room and all eyes would be on him. He will be remembered for his humor, strength, devotion to his family and compassion towards others.

Travis was born in Bowie, MD on May 22nd, 1981. He played the Baritone Horn, earning him a scholarship to Dematha Catholic High School. He was a wrestler, lacrosse player and protector of everyone he loved. He worked in software sales and earned many awards for his hard work. Cherished by his family, Travis is survived by loving and supportive parents, Charles and Christine Miller, brother Jason Miller (wife Jennifer), sister Shellie Coury, and nieces and nephews, Leanna, Noah, Isabella, Delaney, Christina and Vanessa.

*Travis Miller was a bright star as a little boy and that star just got brighter as he grew. The time you spent around him was always filled with laughter and cutting up. Being from the younger generation he would say to me "Now Aunt Mare they have these things called power cords" when my phone was out of power. He also showed me how to put electrical tape so the cord will last longer. He also kept Chrissy and I home when we wanted to go out by sitting and twirling her hair as a Little boy - he got his way with a darling smile. We will miss you forever Travis but our memories will stay as bright as you were cause we will retell them over and over. Love ya lots like we love the rest of our beloved Miller Family.
