

Tyler Joseph Dupuy

July 28, 1994 - August 14, 2019

Tyler J. Dupuy passed away unexpectedly in a car accident on August 14, 2019 at the age of 25. Tyler is survived by his girlfriend, Katheline, and their unborn son; his parents, Shawn and Debbie; his brother, Michael; his sister, Lexie; his grandmother, Dolly; and his aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Tyler was born in Lake Charles, Louisiana, and grew up in Manassas, Virginia. He loved sports (especially the Redskins) and spending as much time as he could outdoors.

Tyler always lit up every room he was in with his humor and smile. He will be greatly missed by everyone.

Tyler's service will be held at Pierce Funeral Home in Manassas, VA on Sunday, August 18. Visitation will be from 3:00 - 4:00 PM. A service will be held at 4:00 PM, and a reception will follow from 4:30 - 6:30 PM.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating in Tyler's memory to help support Katheline and their baby during this difficult time. Donations can be made here: <https://www.gofundme.com/katheline-pc>

“ I taught Tyler during his freshman year at SJHS. He was a truly special young man. He was very intelligent, hard working, honest, and kind and was probably my favorite student that year. I'm so terribly sorry for your loss. He was taken too soon. May God bless you and comfort you during this terrible time.
