

Usha Kiran Mathur

August 24, 1952 - April 10, 2025

Usha Kiran Mathur of Centreville, Virginia passed away peacefully on April 10th, 2025. She was born on August 24th, 1952 in the beautiful town of Jodhpur, India to Late Dr Ganpat Lal Mathur and Late Amar Kaur Mathur. Married at an early age, Usha devoted her life to being a wonderful home maker, a mother and a grandmother. She was married to Dr Prakash Mathur and became the beacon of light in his household. Living through tough times as a young couple, she inspired him to complete his PHD and to take on newer opportunities. Their stay abroad in early part of their married life shaped the entire family and charted the path of their two children.

Usha was a very social person and loved to cook. She was connected to not only close family but with friends and acquaintances irrespective of where she was living, in good and in poor health. She loved music, art and was very fond of decorating and organizing her surroundings. She loved to dress up for every occasion and kept her wardrobe and accessories up to date with times. Usha's survivors include her husband, Prakash; daughter Kshama, son-in-law, Jai, son, Vinod; daughter-in-law, Niti; and grandchildren, Kavya, Anisha, Pranav and Vaibhav.

Her last rites will be performed according to Indian hindu rituals on Sunday, April 13th at 9:30 AM EDT at Pierce Funeral Home and Cremation Services, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, VA 20110
