Vance Clifford Meadows, 76, of Manassas, Virginia, passed away on January 25, 2023. He was born on January 20, 1947 in Washington, D.C., to Vance and Delia “Frances” Meadows. He was raised by Frances and her second husband, Bernard Sisk.

Vance grew up in Washington, D.C., moving to Mount Rainier, MD as a teenager. He graduated from Northwestern High School, where he was active as an athlete and played cello in the orchestra. Over the years, he worked at Giant bakery, and later in transportation as a driver, dispatcher, trainer and manager.

Vance loved to listen to old-time radio programs. He enjoyed reading, listening to music, and studying his Bible with numerous commentaries and in multiple translations.

Vance joins his brother, Gary Sisk, mother, Delia Frances Sisk, and his dad, Bernard Sisk.

He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Christine Meadows; Children, Cliff Meadows (Jill), Don Meadows, Julie Meadows (Jim Thompson), and Joshua Meadows (Meg); his Grandchildren Jodie, Sam, Jonathan, Emmy, and Kate; Great-Grandchildren Aiden, Alexys, and Chance; his Brother Roger Sisk, and his Sisters JoAnn McDonald, Ruth "Susan" Pennington (Kurt), and Traunda Sisk; and his nieces and nephews.
