“ With sympathy to the family of Vergie. We met her at Chapel Springs Assembly of God. She was always cheerful, sometimes ornery. We loved teasing her. Joe and Joan Perry

“ We are so sorry to hear that Vergie passed away. She had such a joyful spirit and was very encouraging to all. We would love to see her smiling face the first Saturday of every month. She would sing with all her heart. We will miss her. We send our love and condolences to the entire family. Love from Mark and Heidi Poole and all of us from Nokesville Gospel Chapel. Our Saturday sing-alongs will not be the same, but she is rejoicing in heaven.

“ Deepest sympathy to the family of Vergie Walters. I came to know Vergie when our Chapel Springs church would hold Sunday services at the Manassas Rehab Center. I will never forget her cheerful smile and the sweetest hugs we would share when we were there. Vergie was a true Christian and loved to sing along with us and knew every word of the hymns. May your soul rest in peace you will truly be missed.
