James, Robert (Bob), Dayle, Charles, Sharon, David, Gail, and Michael,

Most of you will remember me (the Weeks family) from our years spent growing-up in Marumsko Village, and for attending the same county schools together. That was such a long time ago, and time has a way of setting aside those nearly forgotten memories until some recent event causes one to look back. I have fond memories of most of you. I did not have the pleasure of knowing James and Gail.

I was saddened to read about your father's passing in the Free Lance-Star newspaper. I never met him, but he must have been quite a wonderful father and extraordinary man to have raised all of you fine people. I don't believe a father of today has the wherewithal to duplicate what your father was able to do. Your father and my father are products of "the greatest generation", as author Tom Brokaw writes about. Never will there be another generation of Americans quite like them, as their numbers sadly dwindle. Throughout their years of hardship, sacrifice, and toil they were able to provide well for us in our most vulnerable childhood years, then give us the tools and skills we needed to become independent and successful. Your father, I am sure, was quite satisfied with the results of his labors.

I want to thank your father for serving in the United States Army. His commitment to our country's freedoms and liberties, and the sacrifices your family made while he was protecting those ideals, is truly appreciated. An interment at Arlington National Cemetery is befitting of his great service to this country. All of you must be very proud of that honor. May he rest in peace among the rolling hills and manicured lawns overlooking our nation's most picturesque city.

On behalf of Cindy, Greg, Wayne, and Brenda Weeks, we share in your grief and ask our Heavenly Father to lighten your heavy hearts and share in the joy that one day all of you will see him again in the eternal home that our God has prepared for all of us.

With my warmest regards and sincerest condolences, Kevin

“ My love goes out to the family. I know how close all of you are to your Pop. That's proof of what a great family he raised. He and your mom was a big part of my childhood, and as I grew up I have so many memories of our families together, celebrating holidays and weddings and just living life. I know you will miss him! and things will just never be the same, but as long as you have your memories and stories and each other, he will live in your hearts forever. Celebrate him today with all the love that he had for all of you.

“ The last time I saw Wayne was when he visited my family in Alliance, Ne. He was so tall he had to be careful not to bump his head as he walked thru the doorway. I am sorry our family's never stayed in touch. He was a very nice person. My condolences to the family. Sincerely, Norma Jean Bruce Sharp
