“ Roger, Raymond, Heather, Brandon, Garrett, Patrick & Lindsey,

I am so terribly sorry for the loss of your wife and mother. May you find comfort in knowing that she is with the Lord and not suffering. I pray that God gives each of you strength and comfort during this most difficult time in your life. May all your memories of Vickie be happy ones and until you meet with her again.

Love,

“ We are saddened at the departure of our dear sister Vickie, but as the Bible says, we do not grieve as those who have no hope. We miss her dearly, but we are confident that we shall see her again in glory.

May God bless and comfort you,
Roy and Jeannette Fulbright

“ We are deeply saddened to learn of Vickie's untimely passing, and we wish to convey our heartfelt condolences to you all upon the loss of your beloved wife, mother, daughter, and sister.

Many years ago, we had good times together with the growing Guilliams family and with Mrs. Black. We trust that her faith will help her bear the special grief of a mother.

With the strength that God gives his faithful, may Roger and the whole family be comforted in time by the memories of your dear Vickie. She was always full of life and laughing, and her joy in her family was her legacy.

“ I have a few memories of Vickie that I will always treasure. As a freshman in college she and the rest of the family helped make me feel at home. I was always welcomed into their house and included in whatever they were up to. Spending a few holidays at their home made a huge difference in my life.

I will also always remember the fun at the Dinner Theater, not just laughing but also the family interactions and spending an evening twisting cherry stems into knots. Vickie won that battle!

Your family is in my prayers.

“ Jack and I just want to say how very sorry we are for your loss. Vickie was such a dear, fun sister in Christ. She did sooo much for our church. It will take a few people to replace her for all that she did. She will be greatly missed. But, Praise the Lord! we will see her again in glory. And, what a day of rejoicing that will be!! You all are in our thoughts and prayers. Donna & Jack
