“ With great sympathy to Carolyn his devoted and loving wife. My prayers and thoughts go out to her and our children Beverly and David. I am so thankful that our Children are there for you to give you support and encouragement. Bev and David are like your own children and I am thankful for that. Carolyn, I pray that the Lord will give you His peace that passeth all understanding and comfort you in the days to come. Barbara

“ Vince will be truly missed, he was a very special person, always so happy and full of life. Our thoughts and prayers are with Carolyn and the family. Always remember, those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day, unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed and very dear.

“ Carolyn, I was so sorry to learn of Vince's passing yesterday. I always had such a wonderful time talking to him at the City Tavern. I can't imagine his chair being empty at lunch, with Chris, Maury and his friends there. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers at this sad and difficult time.

“ Carolyn, most of us have been lucky enough to have you and Vince as a neighbor for our whole lives. Both of you had a smile on your face at all times. Vince was an incredible man who would help anyone at anytime needed. We couldn't ask for anyone kinder than you living right next door. Please feel free to let any of us lend a helping hand at anytime.
