“ Happy Birthday Granny! Your family loves and misses you so much. It seems like yesterday that I received the dreadful news of your departure. I was disheartened at the time, but I am reassured by my faith that we will meet again.

“ I haven't seen Violet in years, but it sounds as tho she was still the caring person she was then. I met her through her sister (Gaynell) who was my sister-in- law at the time. We had good times and good dinners at Gaynell's. My thought's and Prayers go out to her family at this time. I am sure she is rejoycing with Gaynell and her Dear Parents at this time. R.I.P. Violet. As your grandson, I am heartbroken that we have lost one of the "pillars" of our family. There are certain points in your life which occur that things will never be the same afterwards, losing you was one of those events in my life.

I am so proud of the way you battled cancer, you fought until the end and your only concern was that you didn't want to be a burden to your family. You lived your life with graciousness, dignity, humility, and strength; and that is the way that I will always remember you. I like to think that I got some of my strength, determination, and toughness from you. I was proud to call you my "granny".

When God calls for me to come home, I know that you and my grandma Bill will be waiting there to greet me.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died. We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet him ahead of those who have died. For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died will rise from their graves. Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever.
