“ Violet, you were my 2nd mother. I knew you for more years than I had my own mother alive. I miss her dearly to this day and I will miss you for eternity, as well. I'll never forget the day that I met you. Lori and I went to Karen and Ron's and you and Harold were sitting at a table in their kitchen. My first impression was that you were a feisty woman with a gentle heart. I soon learned that was the case! You were a very strong woman as proven by your desire to recover sufficiently from a very serious car accident to be able to attend Lori and my wedding. You were a very generous woman. Kevin and Jessica never got to meet my mom. You were the consummate Grandmother. They will miss you for eternity, as well. Kevin always held a special place in your heart. I pray that Harold has the strength to continue without you. He misses you dearly, as well.
