“ Sweet Ginny, Lovely lady. She was the best neighbor . Her home and family, she loved to share the love with whomever she met . Her showcase was her home and beautiful Yard. She had a green thumb where she nurtured all her lovely flowers. She often spoke so lovingly of her family that she held closely to her heart. She and Paul had a Christmas display that they would share with the Mountain residents. Each year their Christmas Wonderland Delighted many children who came by the carloads to enjoy. Ginny A true Christian and lovely lady you will be missed. Heaven has gained an Angel and we have so many wonderful memories of a wonderful neighbor and friend. With Sincerest Condolences to Paul and his loving family. Your friends and neighbors ,Larry and Dottie Smith.
