

Virginia Decker

June 19, 1915 - February 23, 2010

VIRGINIA B. (GINNIE) DECKER, died in Manassas, Virginia Tuesday, February 23, 2010 from complications from pneumonia.

Ginnie was a long time resident of Marion, Virginia and came to Manassas in 2004 to be closer to her daughter. She was born in Springfield, MA to Glenn and Alva Bullard. Her birth mother died when she was a young child and she was raised with her father and his new wife, Isabella Blondon. Ginnie received her Registered Nursing degree in Springfield, Massachusetts and was a scrub nurse and ran an OR in Rutland, Vermont until she and her husband moved to Marion, Virginia. After her daughter was in school, Ginnie worked in The Olde Virginia Gift and Stationary Shop for many years. She loved needlework and playing bridge. Her Christmas Stockings were always a hot item at the Church Bizarre. She also enjoyed bird watching with her husband.

She was predeceased by her husband, Anton M. Decker (Tony) and her daughter Susan W. Keen.

She is survived by her daughter, Lisa Decker and husband Harold S. Mauck, Jr. (Scooter) of Manassas; her granddaughter, Tammy Gorham of Manassas Park; three great grandchildren, David Goodspeed, Jessica Holmes and Crystal Gorham; one great great grandson, Daiden Goodspeed and her late daughter's husband, Raymond W. Keen of Manassas Park.

A small service will be held 6:00 P.M. Friday, February 26, 2010 at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas with Dr. Richard L. Bradley officiating. Interment, after cremation, will be at a later date in her husband's family plot in Walton, New York cemetery. Reception to follow immediately at Center St. Grille, 8971 Center Street, Manassas, VA.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to your favorite charity in Ginnie's name.
