“ I’m so very sad. Vivian has been doing my nails for 13 years. She was taken far too soon with so little warning. Her kindness and her love for Georgia will be how I will always remember her. My sincere condolences to her friends and family.

“ I cannot begin to express my sadness for the loss of Vivian. Buddah said, “In the end, only three things matter: how much you loved, how gently you lived, and how gracefully you let go of things not meant for you.” I know Vivian did all of these things with all the grace and kindness within her - She will be missed and fondly remembered.
