“ Shirley, Lisa & Kristina, I am so sorry for your loss. I have very fond memories of Mr. Bailey from childhood and my teen years. He would always say "Hi" when he saw me even when I wasn't with my mom. I remember one time when I got pulled over by the Haymarket police very soon after getting my license, Wallace drove by and I just knew that he'd tell my mom about it. As far as I know he didn't....he just asked me if I got a ticket or did I talk myself out of it the next time he saw me. :) He laughed when I told him that all I got was a warning.

Friends please know then when it hurts to look back and you are to scared to go forward, look beside you and your family and friends will be there.

Please let me know if you need anything.
