

Wallace Farrish

September 24, 1964 - February 5, 2005

WALLACE PARKE FARRISH, age 40, of Woodbridge, Virginia died Saturday, February 5, 2005 at his home.

Mr. Farrish was a native of the area. He loved music, fishing, his animals, playing jokes and laughing. Mr. Farrish was a loving father and husband. His dream was to move to the Outer Banks with his family, which he considered his home away from home.

Survivors include his loving wife of 11 years, Jeanne Farrish, his daughter Jillian Farrish of the home, three sisters, Mandy, Megan and Gayle, one brother Nick, his mother in-law and father in-law Carole and John Gray, his brothers in-law Ron and Paul Gray, Troy Sloper and his sisters in-law, Linda and Mary Ellen Gray.

Also surviving are numerous nieces, nephews and countless friends.

The family will receive friends from 4:00-6:00 P.M. Thursday, February 10, 2005 at Price Funeral Home, 9609 Center St., Manassas, VA where a memorial service will be held immediately following at 6:00 P.M. with Rev. Dr. Larry L. Lee officiating. In honoring Wallace's wishes, casual attire is appreciated.

In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to the college fund for Jillian Farrish addressed to Custodial Account, 3410 Chelsea Drive, Woodbridge, VA 22192 in memory of Wallace Parke Farrish.

Condolences may be sent to www.pricefh.com

“ From the closing of one of our favorite movies, Blazing Saddles...

Gene Wilder: So, where you headin' cowboy?

Cleavon Little: Nowhere special.

Gene Wilder: Nowhere special... I always wanted to go there.

Cleavon Little: Well, c'mon then.

Wallace, I hope your "nowhere special" is filled with beaches, fun and sunshine!

Say hi to Bill and Jim for me.

“ Jeanne, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time of your loss. You and wallace were the perfect pair. For two people who have stayed together as long as you two have and be as happy as you always were, it's rare. Wallace was a great person and a caring friend. I will miss him greatly. I hope your heart heals quickly and remember all the good times, there were alot of those. If you need anything at all, don't hesitate to call, i'm here for you. Love Joanne

“ *Dear Jeany and Family,
Please from my family and i, let me start out by sending you our most sincere condolences.
Jeany, i cant even find the words to descibe how i feel about what happened to Wallace. I know i did not know him very long, but i know he was a special spiritual person, and it is pretty obvious that he loved you with all his heart.
Jeany, just remember that he will always be with you in spirit and in sole. He will always here your cries, but he will wanna hear your laughter as well....*

Maybe someday Jeany, you, Ron and i can go to a show together in memory of wallace and feel him there thru the music...

You take good care of yourself, my prayers are always with you and your family Mark.....
