“ Warren was a dear friend and I admired his love for the Lord. He and Rae Jean were with with me thru-out the days of my wife's illness before her passing away. I was able to talk to Warren by phone on the 18th of Dec., I will always cherish that moment. Our prayers are with David and his family. L.W. and Mickey Bolton

“ Warren was a great man and leader. I worked for and with Warren for many years at the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command. He motivated and brought out the best in people. He worked harder than anyone else and inspired others to achieve their best. I will remember him as a mentor and role model. I will miss his presence in this world but he will be in my thoughts and memories forever. Jim Nooney.

“ David, I'm so sorry for your lost and I have lost a very dear long time Friend. I have notified many of his SPAWAR friends, some out of town and they send there condolences and love. Just trust in God to help you through these troublesome times and remember the good times and memories. God Bless. Bettie Williams

“ Warren will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. If you knew Warren you can be certain where he is now. Amen Both Warren and RaeJean spent their lives serving the Lord. Always taking time, giving to others and spreading the word of salvation. They were loved and respected by all.

I feel grateful that I had the opportunity to spend precious time with Warren at the memorial service hosted by Pierce Funeral Home week before last.

I trust and pray that Warren is reunited with his love RaeJean both renewed in heaven. A piece of my heart goes with him.

“ Warren was a wonderful friend who lived a Christ-like life that others could see. He was always friendly with others and willing to share his wisdom. He missed Rae Jean greatly.

He will be missed by his "Encourager" Bible study group. He enjoyed spending time talking to my oldest grandchild and would ask about her often. We will miss Warren and Rae Jean in our Church services and Bible study.

“ Warren and Rae Jean were wonderful friends and a great asset to our church. We are grateful for their spiritual support and encouragement, and their love for our Bible study fellowship. They were both well loved by many.

Warren was a spiritually invested man; he was quick to make new friends and touch lives even when he was in the hospital or rehab. His sense of humor and quick wit was always appreciated. We will miss Warren's wisdom and guidance in seeking God's truth and discerning the meaning of the scriptures. Our prayers remain with David and the family and hope that God will sustain them during this painful time.
