“ I have known Wayne and the family since Jan 1975 and he never changed in all those years...just one of the most enjoyable people in the world to be around. When I had my open heart surgery, he was there for me. When my son passed on in 2006, he was again there for me. My dad passed away in Nov 2008, and Wayne and Nina came up to comfort me. I have never known another person like him and I will miss him terribly. I am there for the family and please let me know if I can help in any way.
