“ Those who were privileged to meet him couldn't help but know he was a very special person.

I remember this guy from my high school days, he was working at Burger King, a delight to a gal's eye, so my girlfriends and I would sit outside and watch him work after seeing a movie across the street at Manaport.

“ THE DASH

I know of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend.

He referred to the dates on his tombstone from the beginning ?? to the end.

He noted that first came the date of his birth and spoke of the following date with tears. But he said what mattered most of all? was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time that he spent alive on earth and now only those who loved him know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own, the dogs?..the birds? the horses?

What matters is how we live and love and how we spent our dash.

So think about this long and hard; are there things you'd like to change?

For you never know how much time is left that can still be rearranged.

If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real?. And always try to understand the way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives?..like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile?. Remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So when your eulogy is being read?.. with life's actions to rehash?..would you be proud of the things they say?.. about how you spent your dash?
