

Wilda Jean Hollen

December 6, 1939 - October 27, 2025

Wilda J. Hollen passed on Monday, October 27, at Fairfax Hospital with family by her side.

Born December 6, 1939, in Moatsville, WV, Jean graduated from Philippi High School in 1958. In the early 1960s she moved to Virginia where she raised her son, spent precious time with her two granddaughters, and always enjoyed helping family, friends and neighbors. Jean worked for the Department of the Army for 35 years before retiring in 1996.

Jean is preceded in death by brothers Raymond and Roger, sister Dorine, parents Wilbur K and Mabel V (Cline) Moats, and an infant niece and grandnephew Keaton Massey.

Jean is survived by her loving son, Thomas Patrick Dukeman of Manassas, VA, his wife Lisa Linette Dukeman, and her granddaughters, Taylor Catherine Dukeman and Logan Elisabeth Dukeman. Jean is also survived by her sisters Betty Jo (spouse Jim Anderson), Eilene (spouse Terry McGee), and her brothers Kenneth (spouse Linda Moats), Thomas (spouse Carolyn Moats).

Graveside services will be held Thursday, November 6 at 10 am at National Memorial Park, 7482 Lee Highway, Falls Church VA.

Jean adored children and supported these two organizations for years. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be sent in Jean's honor to St. Jude's Children's Hospital, Children's Cancer Research Fund (Attn: Donor Services, Re: Wilda Jean Hollen) 1650 W 82nd St., Suite 400, Minneapolis, MN 55431 or online at <https://cure.childrenscancer.org/give/630617/#!/donation/checkout>

“ A loving Aunt who would drop anything, if I needed her. I lovingly referred to her as my “Aunt Bean”. I will carry fond memories of my years with her and our adventures. Rest easy sweet Aunt.
