“ When I first met Randy I thought I'd finally met my match in stubbornness, but despite butting heads early on, I grew to appreciate Randy's passion for his work and came to respect his intellect and abilities.

In spite of ourselves, we became good friends. He is going to be sorely missed.

I was devastated when I learned of Randy's death. He and I worked together for many years and working with him was a real pleasure. Randy was a true friend; not just a colleague. He was always ready to listen and help everyone.

God definitely has a new angel. Randy will be missed by all who knew and loved him.
