“ Ann, We will miss Bill so much but know that he is at peace now. You were both such great neighbors to us when we were young newlyweds on Greenside. We will always remember good times, dining and most important laughing with Bill down here at the shore. Love you..Pam and Charlie Wenninger

“ Ann, I was so sorry to hear of Bill's death. I had been thinking of the two of you for quite some time now. I will miss him at adult forum at church. He was just the dearest man, and he will be greatly missed.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to Ann and your entire family.

Bill was a recognized educational communication leader throughout the United States. He served as president of the National School Public Relations Association and was a prolific writer and editorial expert.

Bill was known in our field for his drive to make all of us better and, even in recent years, offered advice to the leaders of our association. I will personally remember his wit and his laugh, which could fill many of our conversations.

Bill also was among the longest standing, dues-paying members of NSPRA.

I will personally and professionally miss his contributions. All of us at NSPRA tip our hat to a leader for a job and a life well done.

“ Bill liked to talk about many subjects and I enjoyed talking with him at the Grumpy Old Mens meetings. Plus all the good times at Secrets in Ocean City, Maryland, and the many good times with him and Ann over the years. God Bless.

“ Bill was always such a fun person to chat with. He liked to talk with me about Va Tech sports. It was a pleasure to see him greeting parishioners at Trinity. Rest in peace my friend and may the Lord bless His wife and family.
