“ Our hearts go out to Marie and family in the loss of Bill. We met Bill at Church 28 years ago. My daughters and I have memories of going to DC to feed the homeless with Bill. His soups were delicious. He was always so nice, caring and funny. As my daughter got older, they would talk politics and they were not on the same side, but, that was ok, they enjoyed their debates. We will truly miss Bill. Our prayers are with the family during this difficult loss.
