And the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will Himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast, to Him be the power forever and ever. Amen. I Peter 5:10

“ Our heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to all of Paul's family. He will truly be missed by me and my family. He was there for me coming out of high school and not knowing what I wanted to do in life. I worked with him for a short time til marriage came into my life and Paul always spoke words of wisdom and encouragement into my life. I was truly blessed to have him breath uplifting life into my heart.

Sincerely ,
The May Family in P.G, VA
Til we meet again brother

“ Even as his 15.5-month older sister, people often thought we were Twins when we were very young - into Elementary School. Freckles aside, Paul + I were VERY different people ... otherwise. The constant comparisons certainly meant for an interesting childhood.

“ I hope he always knew how much his Carolina cousins loved him.....how he was prayed for everyday, how a piece of our heart goes with him on his journey home.... I remember thinking as a child, how funny he talked (the whole family did) it was fast , and with a accent that was oh so different than anything I had ever heard.....We were slways so glad to see them... As we grew up the fast talking didnt seem so hard for me to inderstand.....As our families grew and changed all of our lives, precious visits were always treasured.....saging goodbye to loved ones seemed to be when we saw each other.....I remember what a good heart he always had....He reminnded me of my dad..give you the shirt right off his back if he felt it would help.....
His journey to his heavenly home came ,and I know heaven rejoices.....while the journey without him will be a difficult road.... We are blessed yo have our memories tucked in our hearts...until we meet again.....much love to all that loved and knew him.....my friend we were blessed.....
