My deepest sympathies to Uncle Bill's kids and extended families. And of course to Uncle Paul and Aunt Mary Ann. Although the time I spent with Uncle Bill over the years was minimal, I do cherish the time I had to share a conversation or the one time I went golfing with them in Arizona many years ago. My last memory of him was a time when him and Mary Ann stayed at my Dad's down in Rio Rico, Az. He had me rolling with his jokes, he was one "funny dude" just like his brother Paul and he also shared some of his experiences in the Army. Uncle Bill was their for my family when my mother died and maintained contact with my father since that time. I sure wish I would have ventured to the Newton reunion last year to had seen him one more time. I believe my mom passed away many months after a Newton reunion. Well, my best to everyone and I'm sure his golf game is just fine where he is now.
