

William H. "Billy" Rardin II

March 9, 1976 - November 29, 2021

William H. "Billy" Rardin, II, 45, passed away on November 29, 2021, in Sandyville, WV. The beloved son of Mary Ann and the late William H. Rardin I, brother of Amy Gore (Scott) and Jon Rardin (Natalie), uncle of Kylie, Jakob and Jackson Gore and Alyssa, Paige and Chase Rardin.

A 1995 graduate of Chantilly High School, Billy began his custodial career at CHS in 1995. He was a 26-year employee of Fairfax County Public Schools, currently assigned to Rocky Run Middle School.

Billy was a Special Olympic bowler for more than 25 years. In addition to bowling with his friends, Billy's favorite hobbies included hunting, fishing, camping, visiting the beach and movies.

Most of all, he lived each day to ensure that his family, friends, and his community were taken care of. Always a smile on his face, he had a huge heart. "Mr. Chantilly" as he was known, may now rest in eternal peace.

A "Celebration of Life" memorial for William H. Rardin II will be held on Friday, December 17th from 6 pm – 9 pm at Pierce Funeral Home. 9609 Center Street; Manassas, VA 20110.

“ Many years ago we met the Randin family at Myrtle Beach camping. Billy was always there to help anyone that needed help. He had the heart of gold. He loved to take the kids to min golf, to Barefoot Landing, and swimming. He would buy gifts for teachers that work where he did. He would give you the shirt off his back. R.I.P Billy. We will sure miss you and your Dad at camp
