“ I still remember the song we made up in the hallway of Jennie Dean Middle School during rehearsals for Pump Boys and Dinettes.... "Boy, Boy, Crazy Pump Boy - be cool boy, Got a socket in my pocket - keep cool-y Pump Boy".... my heart smiles at the memory, even as my heart breaks for the loss of this talented, funny, smart and kind human being. What a loss. What a loss. I'm so sorry for this family's devastation in the wake of his light going out. Deb Booth

“ Billy and I were like brothers growing up. Great memories of gatherings of the cousins (Short’s, Byers’s, and Schillinger’s) at Uncle Bill and Aunt Margie’s house on Hay Street. I loved spending time with Billy and his friends at their band practices in Wilkinsburg when we were in high school. And, while we went our separate ways we always stayed in contact, especially during Steeler games, and to stay current with family news. He was my cousin, and my friend and I will miss him.
