“ We have lost someone truly special, Wilma Lockhart, a woman whose kindness, love, and selflessness left a lasting impression on everyone fortunate enough to know her. She was the heart of her family, always there to care for and support those she loved with unwavering devotion.

Her warmth and generosity made everyone feel welcome, and her beauty, inside and out, shone brightly in everything she did. She had a way of making each person feel cherished, and her legacy of love will forever remain in the hearts of her family and friends.

Her family meant everything to her and they are in our thoughts and prayers during this incredibly difficult time. May they find comfort in the love she surrounded them with and the countless beautiful memories they shared. Wishing all the family much strength, faith and resilience.

May you rest in peace, Wilma, you are so loved and will be dearly missed by all.

“ Mamaw, I can't believe you're not here with us anymore. These past fifteen years have been wonderful for having you as my great-grandmother. I remember all those Sunday dinners with you and Papaw. I had fun a fun time spending the night at your house, those past few times. I loved going to Florida and visiting you and picking those orange trees. I'm sad that you're not with me anymore, me, Emily, and Zach will miss you. You were always a very strong woman. I always try to think of good memories of my times with you. I know you're in Heaven with Papaw, and I know all this time he has missed you so much. Now rest in peace

“ I'm so blessed to have been able to have such a great grandmother. Mamaw was an incredible person and always was kind to everyone. I know that she is in a better place now with Papaw and that she is watching down on all of us. I will always remember her as an amazing woman.

“ Mamaw, you will forever be missed by our family. I have so many found memories of visiting your home that was always filled with warmth and love no matter what was going on. You always welcomed everyone in with a smile and a hug and then made sure they never went home hungry. I am also thankful we got to visit you in Florida numerous times while you and Papaw were there. It was always so comforting to stay with you guys and really get some special visits in. I always think of you and Papaw whenever I eat strawberries from our visits from the strawberry festival. while I know your with Papaw in a better place looking down on us I still am so sad that you are no longer here. I have been blessed to be a part of your family and am forever thankful that the girls got to know their great grandparents. We will always remember you and are comforted in that one day we will get a hug from you again.

“ Mom it has taken me awhile to write this down.
I'm still in a lot of pain and disbelief that you are gone from us. All our memories that we shared together will forever be with me.
Mom you always took care of everyone else before you took care of yourself.
I didn't get to say my final goodbyes before you took your last breath.
I wanted to say how much I loved you and how much I will miss you.
You fought an amazing fight and now it's time to let go and be with the love of your life,Dad.
My heart will forever be broken and I will miss you more than words can ever express.
No more pain and suffering. All your sorrows are gone.
Go mom and Rest In Peace with the Lord.
I love you mom, you was my everything.

“ Words can't express the pain of losing you.
You were always there for me no matter what the circumstances were and for that I was always truly grateful. You were the light at the end of every tunnel and will truly be missed. I love you from the bottom of my heart forever and always

“ Mamaw –

We all love you and miss you so much! It's just not the same without you and Papaw here. I will always cherish all our memories together. I miss all of the Sunday dinners at your house and coming over for Thanksgivings and Christmas' and staying from morning appetizers all the way until at night when the football games were over. Your food was always the best and nobody makes soup beans, cornbread and skillet fried potatoes like you! Mamaws kitchen was always open, and you would always make anything anyone wanted even if it was late at night. I miss the platters of PB&Js that you used to make us kids for lunch and the way you mixed the peanut butter with the jelly. I miss following you all around the house when I was little to see what you were doing and helping you make the beds and help do all the chores every day. I remember that I would always try to scare you by hiding under the bed and grabbing your leg and you would always fall for it lol. I miss spending all summer home from school at your house and coming over to stay the night and visit. I miss all of the family trips you came with us on. I remember the time we were at Hershey Park and we ran as fast as we could to ride the Great Bear roller coaster just one last time before the park closed. I remember watching the sun rise with you at Myrtle Beach back when I was just a toddler and staying on the beach and playing with you while everyone else rode the waves since I was too little. I miss all of the times we took Miley and Emily to come see you in Florida. Zach will miss coming to visit you and bouncing the ball all around your room and giving you sloppy kisses. Most of all I will miss your never-ending love and kindness. I love and miss you and Papaw so much and I am thankful that you are no longer suffering and are with Papaw once again. Until we meet again.

*Love and Prayers,
Matt*

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres”

“ Mom... I'm so lost without you, but I take comfort in knowing that you are no longer suffering and in pain. You went through so much this year. You fought so hard till the very end, I know you were hanging on for us. I feel blessed to have been with you. It was heartbreaking to see you suffer so much. I know you are having a wonderful reunion with Dad, and other family members. They are so many things that I will miss... I will miss you sayings that you had, "I'm just saying " "Sure why not" "Really" and many others. I will miss walking in your room and saying hey woman lol. If I called you Mom, you'd know something was wrong. You would just smile. I will miss your generosity and always putting family first. I will miss finding all your tissues. You would always tell me Thank You, after I would get you ready for the day. You would say " I don't know what I would do without you " Well , Mom I'm not sure what I'm going to do without you. You were my best friend, my confident and so much more. I will miss your good cooking. I will cherish all the trips we took and all the memories we shared. If I'm half the Mother and person you were, I'd be happy. I will miss you throwing me kisses, when I would leave, and giving me fist bumps. Mom... there is so much I will miss. It's hard to put it all in words. I will miss you dearly, and will try to put on a brave face, like I know you would do. I'll see you and Dad again some day, until then, I will do my best to carry on. I'll think of you every day and I know you will be watching over me. Send me a sign sometime. RIP Mom. I love more, Cindy

“ My mother-in-law of 42 years , i have been so blessed with having her in my life. The most important thing to Wilma was that everyone in her life was safe, cared for and well loved, i loved that about her..always thinking about others above her own concerns. She was a tough cookie, all the pain she went through yet never complained...even towards the end her only concern was for others. She will be sorely missed. Rest in peace until we meet again one day . Love you , John
