“ You’ll never hear a robin tweet
Or watch him fly away.
You’ll never feel a kitten’s fur
Or lie and watch him play.
You’ll never know a speeding train
As it goes rushing by
You’ll never taste your first ice cream
Cupcakes or apple pie

*But you have known my voice, my touch
Each day you were alive.
The love and warmth was shared between Daddy, you and I.
The loving care that you received from Every passer by
Some were there to say a prayer
While others stood and cried*

*Doctors, Nurses and all the staff
Were attentive to your needs
They fought for you and talked to you
And prayed you wouldn’t leave*

*But Jesus had another plan
So he came and took you home.
The gates of heaven opened up
And you stood before the throne*

*All the angels gazed upon
Your newly given wings
And polished up your halo
And they gave it to their King*

*On your head He placed it
And the beams spread far and wide
All the angels and the animals*

Watched as He pulled you to His side

*My child you see its busy here and we all have things to do
Your job will be to watch over those Left behind to remember you*

*You'll kiss their cheek and rest your hand
Sometimes give them a hug
They'll feel your closeness in their hearts
As they look to skies above*

*Words you'll say to them in dreams
As you ease their minds to rest
That you couldn't stand the hurt in them
God new that this was best*

*Mommy and daddy don't cry for me
I'm better off with God
He made me whole and healed my soul
Now I'll always be around*

*So today as you all think of me
And how short my life has been
In heaven there's no sense of time
And we'll be together again*
