“ We had the honor of having Wyatt on our trip to St Croix. He was stalwart and sincere in all he did with us on the island. He was always ready to help, as well as to have fun. He had eagle eyes, able to spot a red-tailed boa between two rocks. Upon receiving the skin, he proceeded to tan the skin and presented it to me to "make something special from it" for Dr Renfroe. He will always remain in our hearts and memories. He will always spark a smile to those that love him. The world is an emptier place without him in it.

“ Wyatt was my first true friend in Highschool. He was kind, smart, and caring. He never shied to reach out and always loved hearing how I was doing in life. As I loved to hear how he was doing.

Wyatt was very outgoing and never had a problem making a new friend. I was always the quiet one but Wyatt would bring me along and introduced me to countless people who are still friends of mine today.

Wyatt was one of those people that really seemed to really know what he believed in and we had numerous conversations about life. I can say definitively that he changed the way I view the world and the things I believe in, for the better.

Wyatt had many hobbies that were alien to me and sought out to show me what he loved to do. Like hunting, hiking, and really just spending time outdoors in a way I wouldn't have normally done. Things that I would never have thought of doing or thought I would enjoy doing. These are still things I enjoy doing today but not as much without him.

On top of all these great things and changes Wyatt brought to my life, he also brought me his amazing family. The Ivers are some of the strongest and loving people I know. Along with Wyatt they helped to change the way I think for the better and I am grateful for that. They also invited me into their family and helped to create many memories that I will hold onto and cherish for the rest of my life.

Sadly I will not be able to make any more memories with Wyatt, but in a way I will be. He will be there when I am doing the things he taught me to love.

Love you Wyatt and I will miss you.

“ Wyatt was a great young man who I had the pleasure of working with at FWC last duck season. We got to hunt together, him, Joe, and I and we had such a great time. Wyatt was kind yet persevering, and had a talent to make people smile. The world is worse off without him in it. Condolences to all the family

“ Wyatt was one of many cherished students I had the joy of teaching during my 13 years at Brentsville District High School. I just remember how he brought a light heartedness to everything. I am sure that I am not the only one who will remember him this way.

“ Wyatt was always the person to light up the room and make everyone laugh. He was one of the brightest people I know with the biggest heart. The world will be a little bit darker without him here.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Wyatt. I am so lucky to have grown up with him. I'll always cherish our memories from when we were 14, just a starting high school, to our first week at college. I was just watching some old videos, and smiled looking at the time when we all rode in the back of a truck, laughing and excited to finally be at JMU right after we all moved into our dorms. Wyatt was a great friend to all, truly one of the most kind people I'll probably ever meet.

“ I took that photo of Wyatt. I can press and hold the photo to watch the live. He had such a pure heart and soul. I lived with Wyatt on a study abroad trip to St. Croix. He voluntarily slept on the floor in the corner the whole trip, while we got the beds. Wyatt taught me so many things including how to skin a snake, how to catch a fish with a gatorade bottle and a string, and a lot about myself. Wyatt never judged me or my character, he was a friend through and through. He liked my lingo so much he started adopting the way I talk, we laughed over it. Love you Wyatt, see you up there champ!

“ I am at a loss as how to express how sad I feel for the loss of such a gentle caring soul that Wyatt was. I remember him around the farm practicing his trapping skills, and that he loved fishing with his Dad. I'm sad for all the hearts that are grieving him.
